City Council Defers P.O. Angle Parking

Unlimited Parking Extended For Sierra Engineering Area

Nuetzel Tract Map Deferred Due To Subdivider's Absence; 72 Hours Given

The City Couuncil met in regular session Tuesday evening with all members present, but with City Attorney Martin absent, due to other committments.

The Fratt lot split was moved ahead on the agenda, the reason being absence of the attorney. An appeal is expected on this controversial subject. The appeal must be made 15 days after the minutes of the Planning Commission are available. This item will come up on the agenda at a later date.

Public hearing on assessments of Sewer District No. 74 was held and the Council passed the necessary resolutions overruling and denying protests. Assessments will stand as amended through assessment error which would place an estimated additional assessment of approximately $4 per lot on all property of the district.

Property owners of Ramona Avenue are to be notified that no money is available for street improvements, and they are to be solicited as to the forming of an Improvement District for the work they desire.

A report of the Police Chief was reviewed, relative to angle parking in front of the Post Office. Reading of ordinance was withheld until such time as the council could explore all avenues of remedy before passing the ordinance for angle parking. With this delay, angle parking could not become a reality until approximately December 27, providing this is the avenue the council persues. They will look over the possibility of Suffolk Avenue construction, and the possibilities of creating parking in the city owned 30 foot strip north of the Post Office, before any decision is made.

A petition of property owners on Manzanita Ave. was reviewed relative to unlimited parking of Sierra Engineering Company employees. It was the decision of the council that unlimited parking would prevail until Nov. 30, at which time the area would return to limited parking of two hours. This area may be extended after a study and report of the Police Department.

The Nuetzel Tract Map up for approval or rejection was deferred to the next meeting due to the absence of any member representing the sub-divider. The sub-divider must accept this deferment within 72 hours or consider the tract map rejected. Before hearing the matter the Council had several questions that must be answered. A future discussion on this proposed 61-lot sub-division is expected.

Other business before the Council was the hiring of the Custom Building maintenance Co. for a 90 day period for janitorial service at the library and city buildings. The approval of a new fire station door for a price of $846 which was budgeted. A 30 day extension of Sewer District 73 due to encountering heavy rock, and the acceptance of improvements on Manzanita Ave. Adopting resolutions relative to the formation of Sewer District 79, ordering plans and specifications and resolutions of intentions and placing the proposition for public hearing on Nov. 27. Adopting budget for construction work on S. Sunnyside, Sierra Madre Blvd. and Santa Anita Ave., also the adoption of the budget of the engineering work.

ENDORSEMENT

This newspapers wholeheartedly endorses the movements of the President of the United States, and asks all within reading distance of this newspaper to do likewise. Our Political affiliations should be shelved in respect to the problems facing us. We have had, or will have in the next few days, materials presented to us setting forth those candidates that have Communistic tendencies, or leanings in that direction. We must single out those office seekers, and eliminate them via the ballot method on November 6. The problems facing us in the days and weeks ahead will be tremendous, we should not tax ourselves with watching those who show any anti-leanings toward the "American Tradition of Government." Fly the American Flag and stand behind the decisions made by our Commander-in-Chief.

The election is near . . . I can easily tell that, without looking at the calendar . . . yesterdays' mail brought twenty-two, yes 22 political letters to my desk, and as election draws closer and closer the mail will become heavier and heavier . . . on one day just prior to the primary date, and I think we had one issue left before the voting, the talley on the mail showed that we received in one day, 105 letters all concerning this candidate or that, this proposition or that . . . had we published each of them we could not have gotten the material in 24 pages and to tell you the truth, had any of you read the entire lot, you would have become more confused than you are already.

—CT—

Political candidates are also starting to make their calls; we have had four of them drop in to see us in the past week. They all have some mighty fine ideas, and it is our greatest hope that if they are elected that at least twenty-five percent of their plans are carried out . . . it sure would solve a lot of problems facing the people today . . . but only time will tell . . . fifty percent of the candidates will be elected, which cuts the anticipated accomplishments to fifty percent, due to pressures and the many problems involved at taking office, I would estimate that only ten percent of their ideas will be carried out . . . so we can expect that only five percent changes will take place, and that will be enough to satisfy most of us . . . anyway, for those things that are not satisfied it will give us the ammunition of the next election come November, 1964.

—CT—

It is no great joy, every two to four years to have some politician offer to give you back that which was yours. On the other hand I would like for someone to give me back my business . . . after I deduct what Uncle Sam owns, creditors and the banks, I do not have a great deal left . . . except a title, and a great many years ago I tried to wear that and eat it . . . but it does not work too well . . . anyway when a politician tells you what he is going to do for you . . . think . . . is he capable of producing that which he speaks of . . . Or . . . very few individuals have the power, by themselves to produce or give you, the taxpayer, anything . . . he may promote, foster, and work for certain things . . . but to have the power to give, is something that takes a group of elected men to work together to accomplish . . . do not be misled by wild and insincere political exaggerations.

—CT—

Years ago a good act would last a comedian 10 years. But now he goes on the Ed Sullivan show for 10 minutes and it's used up — proof . . . what we really need is more westerns!

—CT—

I was quite amused the other night when one actor asked another actress if she had made any television pictures . . . her answer was —"Yes, about twenty years

Lee Shippey Writes On Politicians

Every day or so at least half a dozen political figures solemnly warn us that we are facing the greatest crisis in human history. But as I grow older I find it very comforting to realize how many times before I have come through the greatest crisis in human history without even getting a scar. The simple fact is that most political orators are good, two-fisted exaggerators to begin with, and when they become candidates the greatest crisis in human history, from their point of view, depends on whether or not they are elected.

It's really amusing to analyze a lot of political declarations and realize how many of them are nothing but twisted words and exaggerated assertions for which on proof whatever is available. We shouldn't applaud any charge for which no convincing proof is offered — and if any of us has that kind of proof of wrongdoing it is our duty to produce it in court, not in a speech or interview or wowardly anonymous pamphlet. And I am optimistic enough to believe the American public is getting too intelligent to be misguided by unproved charges. Fifty years ago I heard a Senator, nationally known as on orator, declaim that the director of the opposing party's campaign was "so full of corruption that it oozes from every pore of his body" — and the big crowd applauded wildly. I think today most of the members of any big crowd would be digusted by such bombast — though some of the keynote speakers come pretty close ot it.

Taxes Based On Assessed Valuation

Sierra Madre Total Tax Rate Set at $8.7345

Next to income tax time, probably no time of the year is so unpopular as the day the property tax bills are received. We all are sure there must be a mistake and, if not, that the amount collected must be enough to pay off the national debt. In this article and the next, an explanation of your total tax bill and the City of Sierra Madre portion will be attempted. It won't make tax day any more popular but, hopefully, a little better understood.

Property taxes are based on assessed valuation, which in turn bears some definite relationship to sale price or value. In California the present assessed value to sale value is about 20%, ie., if your house and land is worth $25,000, it should be assessed at about $5,000.

The assessed rate is stated in dollars and cents per $100 assessed value. In other words, on the house assessed $5,000 the amount of taxes based on the 1962-63 total rate of $8.7345 would be $8.7345 times 50 or $436.73.

This 1962-63 total tax rate of $8.7345 per $100 assessed value is the result of tax rates set by six different groups: The County Board of Supervisors sets the general county tax rate which is $2,0818; the Pasadena School Board sets the school rate of $4.3689; the Sierra Madre City Council the city rate of $1.7710; the Board of Supervisors, acting for the County Flood Control District, sets that rate of $.3351 and acting for the County Sanitation District sets that rate at $.1577; and finally the San Gabriel Valley Munipical Water District Boards set their rate of $.02.

It is interesting to note that of the total property taxes, the County General Funds receive 24%, schools 50%, city 20%, flood control 3.8%, sanitation 1.8% and water district .2%.

Most of us are somewhat aware of what each of these taxing groups does with the money, but a brief review might clarify it.

The General County rate goes for charities (almost 50% of budget), health, district attorney, sheriff, some fire protection, county en-

Fire Damage Caused At Two Places Monday

The Sierra Madre Volunteer Fire Department responded on two fire alarms Monday, Oct. 22. First call was to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Loren (Dorothy) Jenkins at 142 E. Sierra Madre Blvd. at 8:45 a.m. Mrs. Jenkins was cleaning drapes in solvent fluid on her service porch. Flash fire probably caused by static electricity light, burned Mrs. Jenkins about her legs and caused damage to the service porch area.

Fumes also traveled the other direction into the bedroom where a flash fire occured catching the bedspread and mattress on fire.

The second call was to the Sierra Madre Machine Company at 145 E. Montecito near noon ,where a canvas

Search & Rescue Team Assist In 4 Day Search

BY Bill Wark

A lost deer hunter was found safe Saturday afternoon. He wandered aimlessly for four days and nights through the heavily timbered slopes of King's Canyon at the 8,000-foot level in freezing temperatures. It brought to an end the courageous search and rescue effort made by the Fresno County Sheriffs, Forest Service personnel and members of the Sierra Madre and Altadena Search and Rescue Teams.

E. J. Stevens, 48, and his hunting partner, Donald J. Neubauer, 47, both guards at the Federal Prison at Lompoc, left Monday morning for a week's hunting trip in the Horse Corral Meadow area. Neubauer had hunted there many times before, but Stevens never. They separated. At dusk, Neubauer returned to their tent but Stevens was missing.

"I made a big campfire that night and fired my rifle many times into the air, I blew the horn of my car and I called and called but there was no response, and when the chill of the evening came and clouds covered the sky, I went into the tent and watched my Coleman lantern slowly flicker out. All the fun of the trip was gone. I knew my partner was lost."

Neubauer drove to the nearest Ranger Station at Big Meadows and they called the Fresno County Sheriff's office. All night U.S. Forest Rangers and members of the Fresno County Sheriff's force under the direction of Sgt. Merle Pearson combed the area with flashlights without success.

In the early morning hours, A. R. Simmons, owner of the King's Canyos Pack Stations, arrived with horses for the weary searchers to ride. They had come over the trail from Cedar Grove to Horse Corrals. It was an all-night journey and they, too, had shouted and shone their flashlights about, but there was no answer.

All the next day the searchers continued combing the forest. Airplanes and a Forest Service helicopter were brought in but to no avail. At 4 o'clock Friday morning five members of the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team arrived to assist. They brought with them "Tuffy," the famed sturdy tracking bloodhound. Three members of the Altadena Mountaineers arrived to offer

The 2,800 patrolmen now cover 81,000 miles of roads, mostly outside of the incorporated areas. Sergeant Mahe spoke of attending Kiwanis summer camps when he was a boy in Canada.

Officer Bowman in a Highway Patrol motion picture showed the club of the damage and danger which can occur while traveling at "moderate speed of 25 and 35 miles an hour, physical injuries which could have been avoided with the use of seat belts.

Lieutenant Governor Harvey Parker of Baldwin Park, presented the Lieutenant Governor-elect, Robert Miller of Ontario. Both delivered inspiring messages to the local club.

Sierra Madre-Altadena Rescue Team

their help. It was feared that no man could survive the 20-degree temperatures that fell on the mountains at night.

Fifty-six-year-old Hubert Nevins from the Fresno District Attorney's office came, too. Nevins, is a 30-year veteran of searches in the mountains. His feats in finding the lost have become a legend in that part of the Sierras.

With Sgt. Pearson in charge, Miner Harkness and Hubert Nevins assisting, the search was resumed at daybreak. The first ray of hope came when "Tuffy" picked up the scent and followed it down into Boulder Canyon. On the way down, Pearson found a small campfire site with some of the ashes still warm and for the first time since the search began hope was running high.

But it was rough going in the narrow confines of the canyon. Darkness and cold set in. Fearing for the safety of his dog, Miner and his crew returned to base camp. It was 25 degrees but Ray Lorrenzini and three Altadenans armed with flashlights and sleeping bags headed down the slopes. They hoped they could spot any fire which the lost man might build.

About 8 p.m. a huge chuck wagon ground to a stop at the base camp. It was from th Fresno Sheriff's office and was a welcome sight to the tired, hungry searchers. There were jokes around the campfire at night. The men knew the long search was drawing to a close. "Tuffy" received his praise with a cheerlessness befitting to a bloodhound.

At 12 p.m. five more men from the Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team and three from Altadena arrived.

Once again the search was resumed at daybreak, this time concentrated in Boulder Canyon.

About 1:30 p.m. word flashed across by walkie-talkie that Stevens was found. He was cold and hungry, but otherwise unharmed. He was carrying only the barrel of his rifle, as he had fallen down some rocks and had broken off the stock. He had no firing pin with which to fire distress signals and attributed his survival to insulated underwear and also by building a small campfire back in the holes in the rocks where has spent the nights. He said he didn't think he could have lasted much longer.

Neubauer wept with joy at the sight of his partner. They called their families and they were overjoyed, too. The Warden from the prison where they work also called to offer his congratulations and appreciation to the searchers—a happy ending to a long and rugged search.

Sgt. Pearson thanked the men of the Rescue Teams for their splendid cooperation and help. "We have never worked with a finer group of mountainmen than that of you men from the Sierra Madre and Altadena Search and Rescue Teams," he said.

Sierra Mesa Faculty Party

Perhaps motorists driving by 585 W. Sierra Madre Blvd. on a recent balmy evening, wondered about the source of the enticing aroma and the reason for the festive atmosphere created by the tiki torches on the apartment deck of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Baird. The Sierra Mesa School faculty temporarily forgot conferences, tests, lesson plans and the 3 R's to enjoy a steak fry "with all the fixings," according to Miss Betty Newton, principal.

Supper was followed by carefully selected slides, which included places throughout the world, shown by Miss Evelyn Milby, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Pinney, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sauter. Mrs. Sauter was on sabbatical leave from Sierra Mesa last year and Mr. Sauter was also on sabbatical leave from Mt. Gleason Jr. High School to travel throughout the United States and Mexico.

Mrs. James Heasley, who retired from her teaching career last June, also attended the dinner.

Sierra Madre Tax

gineer, county clerk, recorder and voter registration and many small but necessary departments.

The school tax supports the elementary, junior high, senior high and junior college. Property taxes make up about 50% of the necessary money for schools, with the rest being received from the State.

Flood Control District funds are to maintain the existing dams and channels, remove debris from the dams, as has been done recently in Sierra Madre, and pay for bonds which have been sold to finance the dams and channels.

The Sanitation District operates the sewer lines and pumping and treatment stations to handle the sewage from our city lines to the outfall in the ocean.

The Municipal Water District is handling the engineering and planning to bring a supplemental water supply (either Feather River or Metropolitan Water District) to the San Gabriel Valley.

Next week: Sierra Madre City Tax Rate.

ago, but I did not know it at the time." Now I know why I have gotten so old while my favorite actor and actress of twenty-five years ago stays so young . . . . for a while I actually believed in the "fountain of youth." In fact about three and a half years ago I visited this great spot in Florida . . . . believe me, there is nothing to it . . . . somebody has been giving out hot tips on a slow nag.

—CT—

Getting back to elections and candidates . . . let's not disfranchise ourselves this November 6. Millions upon millions of Americans do that, in effect, each election year. They do it by failing to vote. They're too lazy, too indifferent or "too busy" to spend the brief time and effort it takes to go to the polling booth. The result is that people are elected to office, and often the highest offices, by what amounts to a minority vote. Some times we get candidates into office like that, which was recently experienced in the State of Texas.

—CT—

In Texas, for example, they do not stop at protecting humans within its borders from the wiles of avaricious advertisers: it's just gone all out to help that noble animal, the dog.

The administration, through its agency, The Texas Feed Control Service, has passed legislation and has ordered one of the country's major dog food manufacturing companies to cease and disist appealing to dogs on the basis of color.

Dogs, the state's politicians claim, are colorblind. Therefore, the dog food company has been ordered to quit picturing dog-biscuits in six different colors on its packages. Presumably, because of his unfortunate eyesight defect, the dog shopping in a supermarket can't tell one color of biscuit from another.

—CT—

To us it seems a little unclear, in a way, what the Texas politicians are trying to accomplish. If the dog can't tell one color biscuit from another, he can't possibly be influenced by the package, which isn't misleading to begin with, because the actual biscuits inside also come in six different colors. Apparently the only one hurting in this situation is the manufacurer who is going to all that trouble to cake colored biscuits for colorblind dogs.

—CT—

It may be, however, that the Politicians of Texas are seeking to protect the dog through the dog's owner, as they also object to the biscuits being labeled "chicken flavor," "meat falvor," "liver flavor," etc. The biscuits are flavored as described, but the politicians think the dog's owner might expect the flavor to be fresh chicken, meat, liver, etc., instead of flavors imparted from ingredients such as chicken fat, dried skim milk and liver meal.

—CT—

Although this cease and desist order by the Texan politicians was not apparently made as a result of complaints from either dogs or dogowners who had eaten the biscuits, it is obviously a pioneering step in the protection of consumers. For a new principle has been established: not only are consumers entitled to protection from themselves but from people who buy things for them as well.

—CT—

Let us hope that the California politicians follows Texas' lead and protects all males this Christmas from females who buy men's ties in women's specialty shops.

—CT—

One way you can protect yourself is to make a special effort to vote this November and vote for the best man.

—CT—

In the category of the "Holiday Season" ahead . . . we must remind you that mailing of Christmas packages should be starting on their way, especially those that are going across the "pond" . . . it is definitely not too early to purchase the articles, wrap and pack them, and have them ready for mailing shortly after Thanksgiving . . . let's do it, and in that small way help take the load off the "letter snatchers." They can certainly use our help and support in the next 39 days. Be seeing you around. I hope, I hope, I hope.

Dedication At Dolorosa Retreat House Oct. 28

On Sunday afternoon, Oct. 28th at 3 p.m., the Passionist Fathers will solemnly bless and dedicate the outdoor Stations of the Cross on the grounds of the Mater Dolorosa Retreat House in Sierra Madre. Ten years have been spent building this elaborate and unique Way of the Cross.

The celebrant for the ceremonies will be the Rev. Cornelius J. O'Mara, S.J. of Manresa Retreat House, Azusa; the blessing and sermon will be by the Rev. Hugh Noonan, O.F.M. of Sierra Retreat House, Malibu. An outdoor Benediction with the Most Blessed Sacrament will conclude the ceremony. The choir will be the De La Salle High School Glee Club.

Some of the stations carry life size statues, others are stone plaques and the very artistic work differs in each. Granite, marble, quartz, volcanic rock, El Padre Stone and unique rock formations have been collected from various sections of California, Arizona and Nevada, from desert areas, mountains and mine shafts.

Special guest of honor for the day will be Mr. William Shiltz of Sierra Madre, the architect and buider whose superb craftsmanship has executed this dream in stone. Mr. Shiltz came to Sierra Madre in 1924, he has served on the City Council and twice was Mayor of the City. He has built St. Rita's Church, the Mater Dolorosa Monostery and designed and made the alterations of Mt. Alverno Convent. He is responsible for the San Gabriel Mission School, the Huntington Park Church and the St. Francis Hospital in Lynwood. Letters to the Editor . . .

Dear Editor:

This is being written on the morning after the night before. Now that the tumultuous acclaim of the crowd has died down, an applause in which I heartily participated, I can still remember the pungent remark that I heard immediately afterward, "Thank heavens! At long last President Kennedy has gotten his eyes open on what is happening in Cuba."

And that leads me to ask some very pertinent questions. How did it happen that Kennedy was the last American to learn what was going on in Cuba? Every John Bircher in this country, every conservative, Republican, even Democrat, man in the street, housewife and all school children above ten years of age knew all about it and were, as a chrous, shouting their warning.

Was it that the President was too busy listening to Gryomyko or planning the 21 gun salute for Communist Ben Alla to hear the pleading voice of America — in America? And now we are told by the political bigwigs of both parties not to make Cuba political capital. And why this? Is there a Republican guilt that also backs away from free speech?

As for me and mine, I prefer not to be muzzled. Castro should have been stopped in his tracks, or at least should have been stopped by the Cuban freedom fighters if this administration had not withdrawn its support. Yes, as for me and mine I intend to make a political issue out of it and I plan to vote in the future for those I consider best qualified to make sane decisions, when they should be made, where they should and with the moral courage and armed might to carry them out.

—JOHN H. CURTIS

Little League Meets Oct. 25

First meeting of the 1962-63 Little League will be held Thursday, Oct. 25, at 8 p.m. in the Sierra Vista Park Youth Hut.

The nominating committee which was appointed at the June meeting will report on nominees for the 1962-63 officers and a general election will be held for approval of these officers. Team managers, coaches and assistants also will be considered.

Little League has been a tremendous organization for the development of cooperative team efforts and competitive attitudes for our Sierra Madre youth. It is the time and effort put forth by interested parents of this community that has made the program one of the best in the nation.

All interested fathers are urged to attend to assure a successful 1962-63 season.

S. M. Demos Hold Halloween Party

Sierra Madre Democrats will hold the last party of the 1962 campaign Saturday, Oct. 27, at 8 p.m. at the home of Edith Dane, 566 Manzanita St.

Party chairman, Judy Huber, announces that the gathering will feature a combo for dancing and listening, hot snacks, door prizes and a bar.

The party will be organized around a Halloween theme and costumes are optional. Plan on some old-fashioned Halloween fun.

Don Benito PTA Clothing Drive

Don Benito will have its used clothing drive Monday, Oct. 29, to Friday, Nov. 2. This clothing is distributed through the PTA clothing exchange to Pasadena children who are in need of clothes but do not have the means to buy them.

Any clean, wearable children's clothing will be appreciated, especially patched jeans. Please bring the clothing to the school or call Mrs. Malcolm Murison, welfare chairman, at EL. 5-8562 if you would like the clothing picked up.

Cancer Society Invites You

The local unit of the American Cancer Society invites anyone interested in learning more about the Society in relation to our own community to come to an informal evening meeting at 279 E. Grand View at 8 o'clock Monday, Oct. 29.

There will be service information films, new educational material, dessert and coffee.

Babe Ruth To Meet Thursday

The Sierra Madre Babe Ruth Baseball League will meet today, Oct. 25, at 8 p.m. to begin organizing the League for the 1963 season. The Babe Luth League provides supervised baseball for boys between the ages of 13 through 15 years.

Selection of team managers and coaches will be part of the program. All men interested in participating or learning about the forthcoming program, are invited to attend this open meeting at the Youth Hut, in Sierra Vista Park.

I bet you thought I was going to talk about Halloween, and I AM. I told you last week that I was in a perfect snit about throwing all my old possessions out the back book. I just knew I'd regret it, but I didn't expect to be caught up so soon. Now, what in the world am I going to dream up for costumes? I even got rid of old sheets that could be used for bandages. I guess the only solution to my problem is to hie myself down right this minute to the Boys Republic Rummage Sale and see if I can buy some of it back or duplicate that which am gone!

Parties are always a lot of fun and you can always count on Mrs. John Evans, Mrs. Paul Wetcher and Mrs. Wink Martindale to cop the prize for originality. Next Sunday, Oct. 28, at 7 p.m. they are giving a Shipwrecked party in the Evans Clarameya home. With political furor running at its peak, this party will follow in the trend of the time. The purpose is to raise funds for Dr. Max Rafferty, and they have chosen an unusual way to accomplish this mission. Several well-known artists have donated a number of pictures to be sold, they will have cakes baked by some local teachers for sale, and a delightful buffet supper all for the price of $5 per head. Reservations still may be made by phoning Mrs. Evans at SY. 8-4609.

The Ira Lackeys of Old House Road are going to have to apply for absentee ballots the way they have been traveling around this year. Mrs. Lackey and her daughter, Jenifer, went up to San Francisco last weekend to join Mr. Lackey. They really covered a lot of territory in the old town in the brief time allotted them.

The call of the sea was a strong one to Charles Hardison, Charles Goldsworthy, Ralph Johnston and Walter Burrows. They took off last week for a short stay in Matzaland and to go fishing. I must say, they didn't fool around with the little ones, either. They each caught a sailfish apiece, which should be a sort of a record. I haven't seen the pictures or the fish, but I understand that one was about five feet tall, or should I say long?

Enjoyed talking to Mrs. John A. (Penny) Wills of Doyne Road the other day. She is finishing up her masters degree in psychology at L. A. State. This is her second year and, believe me, it is not easy when you have all that homework plus a family to care for. Hats off department of the week!

The home of Mrs. Paul Weacher was the scene of the Altadena Bethel No. 124 Job's Daughters' luncheon last week. The guest of honor was the Honored Queen's mother, Mrs. Margaret Dietz. The Honored Queen is Leslie Dietz. The Guardian of the Bethel is Mrs. Edith "Sweetie" Nelson. The kitchen committee was Mrs. Ruth Isenberg and Mrs. Marze McCormick. There were 23 guests in all. They discussed their plans for their coming silver tea on Oct. 28.

Mr. and Mrs. Aikman Armstrong of Fairpoint entertained at a small dinner party last weekend that included Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Styron, Mr. and Mrs. Dick Lochridge and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boericke.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Clary of Brambling Lane have been doing a little intimate entertaining of late. Some of their recent guests have been Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Hazen, as well as Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Marangi. Mrs. Clary said entertaining has been a lot of fun since they got each other a new billiard table. Everyone likes to try his hand at the sport.

A Recommending Body

Planning Commission Has Stormy, Late Session

The Sierra Madre Planning Commission met in regular session Thursday evening, Oct. 18, with all members present except two. The following business came before the Commission and recommendations sent to the City Council for their meeting of Tuesday, Oct. 23.

The Huntington Construction Company, represented by Henry McNulty, was denied a zone change from R-1-11,000 to R-1-7500 on portion of Lot 7, Sierra Madre Tract (part of Sierra Growers Nursery located at 326 E. Sierra Madre Blvd.). In making the denial, the Commission stated that they might be in favor of R-1-9000, but this would have to come up for further hearing. With this denial, it was certain that their tentative tract map also would be denied and therefore it was withdrawn from the agenda.

Arnold Richter's application for a variance to reduce front yard setback to 35 feet was denied by a vote of 3-2. Throwing himself on the mercy of the Commission, he asked for their recommendation, that the lot could be developed. The Commission recommended the setback to be 44 feet, which was accepted by Richter and the variance was passed.

The Tentative Map of the Nuetzel property was presented by their engineers with details discussed. The tract map was accepted by the Commission, containing 61 lot proportions, but with 17 required conditions. These conditions, in part, were: Street lights, sidewalks on one side, sewers, easement to 40 feet on lot 16, high pressure water to portions of the tract, compliance with various ordinances and various reports from flood control, engineers and so forth.

With heavy objections from the audience, the Fratt lot split, to create two parcels in Tract 13169, portion of Lot 2, was accepted by the Commission and sent to the Council for final approval.

The meeting adjourned at 12:10 with several items on the agenda left over until the November meeting.

BLOOD BANK

The Blood Bank will be in Sierra Madre on Monday, Nov. 5, between the hours of 2:30 and 7 p.m. at the Sierra Madre School.

PORTENT OF TROUBLE

If your car lights suddenly start brightening and dimming it indicates a loose connection that may result in a short circuit.

Children should be seen and not hurt.

Lindsay At Linfield College

Bruce Lindsay, son of Rev. and Mrs. George Lindsay, 101 W. Bonita, Sierra Madre, is among 1004 students enrolled for the fall semester of the 1962-63 academic-year at Linfield College, McMinnville, Oregon.

Lindsay is a freshman at Linfield.

Linfield is a co-educational, fully-accredited, four-year Christian liberal arts college, affiliated with the American Baptist Convention and granting degrees of bachelor of arts and science and master of education and science.

Phone Co. Adds To Film Library

Two more of Disney Productions outstanding films have been added to the growing film library of California Water and Telephone Company, according to district manager, Dale Eckrote, of Monrovia.

These latest editions are "Grand Canyon" and "Magic Highway, U.S.A.," both 29 minute films and considered among the very best produced by Disney.

"Grand Canyon" depicts this outstanding attraction throughout the four seasons of the year and includes many unusual live animal sequences for which Disney Productions have become famous. It is a vivid musical and pictorial interpretation of Ferde Grofe's "Grand Canyon Suite" with no narration.

"Magic Highway, U.S.A." has appeared recently on television as a part of the RCA sponsored "Wonderful World of Color" and tells the history of road building in the United States; possible highways of the future and how they will be constructed.

These films have a strong appeal to all ages, and like all the other films in California Water & Telephone's library are available on a loan basis, free of charge, to clubs, school groups and others in any area in which the company operates, said Eckrote.

Former Resident Passes Away

Stanley Decker, former long-time resident of Sierra Madre and for many years owner of the Wistaria Bakery, passed away Oct. 9 at Mentone, Calif., where he had lived since his retirement in 1945.

Mr. Decker was born Dec. 9, 1891, in Girard, Kan., and came to Sierra Madre from Los Angeles in 1930 when he purchased the bakery.

He is survived by a son, Edward B. Decker, and two grandchildren, Walter and Laura, of Sierra Madre.

Join in Salute To Author

Library friends and supporters from Sierra Madre will join with librarians and other book-minded individuals from all parts of the Southland in the Los Angeles County Library's annual salute to California authors October 31, at the Statler Hilton Hotel.

The event, the Library's Harvest Book Breakfast, thirteenth time around, starts promptly at 8:45 a.m. in the Golden State room.

It takes hundreds of nuts and bolts to hold the modern car together but only one nut to tear it apart.

Think, but don't drink before you drive.

'YOUR CITY AND MINE'

"VARIANCES AND SPECIAL USE PERMITS"

This will be the fifth and last article on the planning function in Sierra Madre. We have perhaps dwelt overly long on planning, but its importance to the community is very large.

Most of us are not aware of what can happen when a special use, such as a church, school or hospital, or a variance to reduce the required size of a lot, or the placement of a building is allowed, until it happens in our neighborhood. The conflict which reoccurs throughout planning is never more apparent than in a hearing where everyone admits the need for a new hospital or a new rest home — and "I don't want to be unneighborly, but not in the requested location, not in our neighborhood."

The largest single investment of our lives goes into our residential neighborhood. Not only is money involved but our way of life, our friends, our children's playmates; all depend to a great extent on the neighborhood we choose to live in and how that neighborhood develops.

Special uses and variances are grouped here since they both must hinge on an individual situation and therefore must be judged on how will this application affect the community development.

When should a property be given special deviation from the law by variance? A variance, says the law, is good but shouldn't be applied exactly here. Is such special consideration good for the neighborhood or is it only for the applicant's individual or financial gain, and will it damage the surrounding properties? Variances are usually minor items such as building close to the lot line or creating a slightly substandard lot but the net effect will add up.

Special use permits are required on matters such as hospitals, schools, churches and rest homes. The basic idea is that these types of uses are all needed but due to traffic, noise, parking and other particular problems, great care should be exercised in their location. These are handled much the same as other special planning requests with complete plans, inspections by the city engineer, attorney and often the whole Commission, a public hearing and, if granted, a listing of conditions to be met to make the use compatible with the neighborhood.

Some third Thursday evening at 8:00, visit the Council Chambers and listen to the individual problems brought before the Planning Commission. Try to take a neutral position—not thinking of the applicant as a friend or opponent but as an individual with a problem. Listen to the statements made and then decide what you would do. Planning is trying to make Sierra Madre a better place to live.

Next week: That unpopular item — The Property Tax.

an electric dryer is your best buy!

When you buy a Flameless Electric Dryer you'll get more for your money any way you look at it. Here are a few of the outstanding savings that will be yours:

You'll save on initial cost. A Flameless Electric Dryer costs less to buy—up to $50 less than other types.

You'll save on installation costs. With the 120 volt model, there's no special wiring or installation needed—you just plug it in! And be sure to ask your appliance dealer about the high speed 240 volt models, too.

You'll save on operating and maintenance costs. Modern Electric Dryers cost so little to operate on low, Edison rates—only pennies a load! And because they have far fewer parts than other types, you save on maintenance.

You'll save wear and tear on your clothing budget. Only gentle, flameless electric drying keeps clothes cleaner, whiter, fluffier, with no baked-in wrinkles or yellowing caused by overheating or sun-drying.

To make your best buy, see your appliance dealer. He'll be glad to give you all the details about a modern, Flameless Electric Dryer for your home and family.

Recreation Dept. Coordinates Halloween Plans

With Halloween just around the corner, the Sierra Madre Recreation Department plans many outstanding activities.

Leading this years' program is the ever-popular Merchants Window Painting Contest, couducted on October 26 and 27. Director Tom Butch, coordinator of this year's activities, has asked support of many of the city's outstanding groups and organizations. Aiding him in the Window Painting Contest will be the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce for awards and Youth Coordinating Council in conducting the contest itself.

The Halloween evening's activities will get under way at 6:30 o'clock on October 31 in Kersting Square where the Sierra Madre Police Department, aided by car clubs Wheel Hawks and Spartans, will organize the children in a parade.

Just prior to the parade, the costumed children will be judged for outstanding costumes in their respective age groups. Juding and awards will be provided by the Kiwanis Club.

Leading the parade at approximately 7:30 p.m., the Sierra Madre Fire Department will head for the Sierra Madre Elementary School Auditorium where the children will parade across the stage and those winning in their classes will be presented awards. Members of the Woman's Club will present treats for the children made available by the VFW and Lions Club.

Movies also will be shown to the children during the evening's activities. The films will be provided by the Bethany Church. At the conclusion of the movies, the children will be led through the specially prepared cafeteria to represent a spookhouse, accompanied by another group of Senior Mariners.

For the teenagers, the Sierra Madre Civic Club will cooperate with the Sierra Madre Teenage Coordinating Council in staging a dance at Pritchard Hall, donated by the Congregational Church.

Scores of children and adults participated in last year's Halloween activities and it is hoped that as many or more will come out and enjoy themselves this Halloween.

Letters to the Editor

I may not believe in what the man says, but I will defend to my death his right to say it.—(similar words of Voltaire)

Dear Editor:

Please find enclosed check for subscription for Dr. Harry B. Richards, M.D., 650 Landor Lane, Pasadena.

The enclosed letter could be considered a "Letter to the Editor" if you wish to print it.

Thanks for carrying H. V. Witty's column. He seems much more informed than many of the nationally syndicated boys.

Best wishes,
P. MELVIN KNOLL

Dear Editor:

The New Frontier accomplished a slight loosening of the medieval tax shackles applied to our Iron Horse. A 40 year depreciation term for rolling stock, aggravated by inflation, has been reduced to 14 years.

Santa Fe Railway responded by increasing a new car order 50%. For the first time in years the order includes chair cars. In them passengers are invited to ride high-level, El Capitan style.

New depreciation rules are the most economical and beneficial type of depressed area relief. They may well yield more instead of less tax revenue to spendthrift government. The railroad's response is just a small sample of what the Iron Horse can do for us if we unchain him and let him run!

K. FRITZ SCHUMACHER.

Dear Editor:

May we of the Creative Arts Group, Incorporated, add our chorus of approval to Arthur J. Erickson's letter suggesting more support for cultural appreciation and understanding in Sierra Madre. At the Adobe at 37 E. Montecito we have been doing just that for over two years through workshops, art shows, lecture series and open house programs which have included painting, sculpture, pottery, music, dance, drama and puppetry, for both children and adults.

This non-profit neighborhood art center has as its chief aim helping individuals find and develop their own creative potential. Small workshops under skillful instructors have yielded a rich harvest of production in all fields of artistic endeavor.

Though this is an expensive project for a small group to undertake, we still have our heads above water and surely financial help from the community would be most welcome to assist in expanding the activities at the Adobe. The Creative Arts Group is known for its receptive attitude toward cooperation in the community particularly with other cultural organizations. Let's all work together on it!

Dear Editor:

The October issue of the "Flier" has convinced me that the opinion of the PTA hierarchy therein expressed are destructive to American traditions.

The first page assaults the mind and eye with a glowing blurb about the United Nations and its wonderful work. Ask the Kantanganese how the U.N. is an "instrument for peace;" ask yourselves wro finances the "international planning" which is bleeding our United States white; ask the Kantanganese children, mutilated and killed by U.N. troops, about the beneficent offices of the U.N. Read the words of the Directors of WHO and UNICEF as to how they would raise your children, without God; without instruction as to right and wrong; without morality of any sort, but allegiance to "the world." In a U.N. Assembly with a majority of Asian and jungle states, who will rule this world as our minority vote carries less and less weight as we surrender our sovereignty to to "emerging nations" of cannibals and established nations headed by moral monsters such as Krushchev, Castro, Gromulko, Tito, Sukarno, Ben Bella, Chedda Jagan, etc., ad infinitum?

The next item to cheer every patriot is the stand on Proposition 24, the Louis Francis Anti-Communist Amendment. I question the competence of the PTA hierarchy in passing their negative opinions as opposed to the opinions of professional law-makers and interpreters. The California Legislative Council and the Supreme Court of California have both held against the "nitnickers" and downright subversives who oppose this bill. The argument that both gubernatorial candidates also oppose this bill is not persuasive as neither have made a creditable record in the field of law-making or the interpretation thereof.

As long as the body of the PTA allows the hierarchy to express opinions in the name of the organization on matters as controversial as the above, I will no longer support the organization. May it be noted that we have given freely of our time and money in the past. The lay public can only interpret these expressions as being representative of at least the majority of the members, whether or not it is so. There is little, if any, chance to work change within the PTA considering the persuasion of the leaders both locally and nationally, so I'll just stay out. I only regret that my wife has already joined, for what you may be assured, is the last time.

Sincerely,
P. MELVIN KNOLL.

Sierra-Hastings News

by Joyce Wenger

SYcamore 8-4777

MY SWAN SONG . . . After filling this space for nearly two years the time has come for me to move on to other endeavors and make room for someone new. Heaven forbid that I should get drippy sentimental in this last column, yet I must confess I'll miss the frequent telephone conversations with readers, and the always cooperative organization press chairman. The many interesting people and events in our community comprise a sometimes fun, sometimes hectic, but always challenging newsbeat.

If you've ever wondered who walked these hills and built their homes here before you, then perhaps my current project—the writing of a local history—will interest you. Years before the founding of Pasadena by the the "Indiana Colony," persons of world renown gathered at the portals of the Sierra Madre Villa Hotel. President Grant, Helen Hunt Jackson, C. P. Huntington, Henry Van Dyke and John L. Sullivan, to name but a few. Although this once famed resort has long since vanished, the story of William P. Rhoades, who came to these mountains in 1872, deserves to be retold. He purchased 500 acres and hired 75 Chinese laborers to clear the land of chaparral higher than your head and so tick a jackrabbit could not run through it. Within a few short years, produce from his thriving citrus groves and vineyards was taken by steamer to San Francisco and thence by rail to eastern markets. The Rhoades magnificent family home attracted visitors from miles away, and so a resort hotel was added.

Today the Charles Hardison home on Fairpoint occupies the original site of the hotel lobby, and the Ernest Maurin home the site of the stables. Charming Red Robin Farm on Old House Road was once a bunk house for the Chinese houseboys.

I'm indebted to Mrs. Don Jaxtheimer for introducing me to Miss Anita Rhoades, born on the Villa in 1881 and named for Anita Baldwin. From her memory and wit has come invaluable knowledge of the era—including some lively tales of her playmates, Charles and Elizabeth Hastings, the fabulous Abbot Kinney (Kinneloa Mesa); plus a few previously untold antidotes about L. J. Rose and Lucky Baldwin.

Research on part one of this effort is nearly completed. However, I would appreciate hearing from readers who might have knowledge and pictures of the growth of this area after the turn of the century.

It's too early to determine in what form this local history will be printed. If I've succeeded in stimulating your interest, perhaps a year from now you'll beat a path to my door and make it a "best seller" among Sierra-Hastings readers!

Betty and Bob Gobrecht constantly amaze me. Operating their fabulous Macabob's toy store (where they've given some 600 birthday parties in the past year) should require about 30 hours of each day. But they seem to squeeze in a record number of community activities as well. Both are active in Trinity Schooners, Betty is a Brownie leader and Bob joins his music cronies and plays his tuba for every benefit that comes along. They have three children and if all the children manage to be home on the same night, the Gobrechts have their own orchestra. In a spare hour or two last week, Betty joined Pat Opp and went to Los Angeles to gather prizes by the gross for the Field School carnival. While she was at it, she made sure Macabob's would be well stocked with toy elephants and donkeys for those November sixth parties!

Saturday was a big day at the Gobrecht's emporium when Betty presented a clever Vogue doll fashion commentary and 12 your Ranch misses modeled duplicates of the dolls' fashions. The live models, who even had their hair styled to match the dolls, were Debbie Cannon, Larayne Brammon, Susie Becker, Janice Mathieu, Kitty Coates, Delora Deal, Vicki Riggins, Judy Fletcher, Mary Martha Elfelt, Janet Gobrecht, Barbara Riddle and Frances Pearce.

Carol and Brewster Benedict had a wonderful time at the Hotel del Coronado last weekend. They attended the Blue Printers and Photography Association convention, with all the trimmings — Tijuana, Caliente, dining and dancing in the fabulous hotel I raved so much about last week. To top it off, Brewster won a prize in a golf tournament. That's not easy in the Coronado course. One bad slice and your ball is in the blue Pacific!

Las Jardineras Garden Club members are looking forward to their annual progressive dinner tomorrow night. Cocktails will be served at the Peter Lowery home. Half of the guests will dine at the home of Doris and Russ Pooler and the other half at Eileen and Horace Ray's. Some very exotic food is being imported for the affair. There'll be dessert and dancing later at Jo and John Veale's home.

oil curtain on an automatic screw machine caught fire from sparks caused by a dull tool. There was no structural damage. None of the personnel was hurt.

Mrs. Jenkins was back on her job at Hartmans' Tuesday morning and everyone is glad she was not seriously burned.

Editorially Speaking....

"Seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."
— The Bible Matt. 6:33

Just Imagine!

"Imagine that your salary is $8,200 a year — and you are almost $30,000 in debt," says Congressman Norblad, of Oregon. "Last year your debt increased by $390. This year you are adding at least $700 to your indebtedness.

"Your friends are warning you that you can't continue to pile up addition debt — that this is the road to financial ruin. So you and your wife talk it over and decide to draw up a budget for next year. But instead of erducing expenditures — or even holding them at their present level — you decide that you will spend $340 more next year than this year. You reach this decision on the assumption — there is nothing definite — that you will receive a salary increase next year; therefore an increase in spending is in order. Little or no consideration is given to the $30,000 debt. The significant thing is that you expect to make more money next year — therefore you plan to spend it.

"Nearly everyone will agree that a family handling its finances on this basis is headed for serious trouble. Yet, add seven ciphers to these figures, and you have the exact fiscal situation of the Government."

Continually spending more than you earn, whether you are a private citizen or a government is the way to bankruptcy. It is a cold-blooded financial problem, not a partisan political issue.

★ ★ ★ ★ ★

Hand On the Scales

The most discussed domestic problem of the moment can be expressed in a simple phrase: What's holding back the American economy?

Senator Goldwater recently discussed the question. He listed the various obstacles to progress that are commonly cited. Then he wrote: " . . . most of these obstacles stem directly from government meddling with the natural laws of economic freedom. The hand of government in the market place is like the hand of a dishonest butcher on the meat scales. It upsets the balance between supply and demand, which is the essence of brisk commerce."

Then, later on, the Senator said this about centralized, paternalisctic government: ". . . . more than anything else, it denies freedom — freedom of action and freedom of choice — to the individual American . . . It hampers, frustrates and denies the maximum use of individual initiative, industry, incentive and inventiveness. And, in so doing, government interference is drying up the well-springs of a nation's greatness."

History — which is concerned only with fact, and with which no one can successfully argue — is on the Senator's side. We need not look far for the primary block to a vibrant, driving economy. The address is Washington, District of Columbia.

Resistance

Administration spokesmen, following an old tradition, have said that the defeat of major Administration domestic measures can be attributed to the power of intrenched selfish interests along with pure political finagling which cynically disregards the public interest.

But there is another and very different side to the coin. Walter Lippmann, who has observed the national scene for a great many years and is certainly no hide-bound conservative, summed it up in these word: "I do not see how it can be doubted that the resistance in Congress, which involves about a third of the Democrats and about all the Republicans, rests on powerful and stubborn feelings among the voters."

This resistance is to the further extension, at enormous cost, of the Welfare State. Among other things it made itself felt in the votes that defeated the creation of a cabinet-level department of urban affairs, and the medicare plan tied to social security payments.

The medicare matter is especially significant. It is reported that members of Congress received more than 1 million pieces of mail in opposition ot it. Of the 20 senators from the 10 states with the highest percentage of elderly people, 17 voted against the final, amended version of the bill. They certainly knew the sentiments of their constituents.

Every government, like every family, must at times come to grips with a problem as old as society. It amounts to choosing between what it might like to have, and what it can afford. We can't afford more Welfare Statism, without running incalculable risks.

Freedom At Any Price

by Henry V. Witty

The California communist activities suffered a surprise setback when the Louis Francis Anti-Subversive Initiative (prop. 24) qualified for the November ballot.

They suffered their second major setback when California Polls latest statewide survey of public opinion indicated that 66 percent of the registered voters would vote "yes" on prop. 24 if the election were today.

This realization that 66 percent of the voters are ready to deal the death blow to the twisted atheistic conspiracy of communism in California has stimulated the opposition to a fever pitch. The result has been a barrage of double talk, deception and, outright lies. The opponents of prop. 24 are powerful, influential, and well-financed. They are using every means to defeat this amendment including a campaign of confusion and technical quibling in efforts to create doubts in the voters' mind.

The opposition tells us that "if it (prop. 24) were passed, its enforcers might very well burn the barn to destroy the rats — the barn being the protective covering of the right of us all." In other words, the implication is that because of the content of sec. 3 of prop. 24, the civil liberties of every loyal American residing in California will be placed in dire peril. Nothing could possibly be further from the truth.

Let us examine sec. 3. It states: "If an organization is found to be a communist-action organization or a communist - front organization as defined in Sec. 2 of this article by an appellate or superior court or by the grand jury of any county in this State, or by the Attorney General of the State of California, or by any court officer, board, commission, agency or other body of the Government of the United States making such a finding pursuant to law under a substantially similar definition, such organization shall be deemed to be a communist organization for purposes of this article."

Let us now examine Sec. 2 to obtain definition of the terms "communist-action organization" and "communist-front organization."

Sec. 2 par. (c) states: "The term 'communist-action organization' means any organization in the U.S. or in the State of California (other than a diplomatic representative or mission of a foreign government accredited as such by the Dept. of State) which (1) is substantially directed, dominated, or controlled by the foreign government or foreign organization controlling the world communist movement referred to in Sec. 1 of this article and (2) operates primarily to advance the objectives of such world communist movement as referred to in said section.

(d) The term 'communist-front organization' means any organization in the U.S. or in the State of California (other than a communist-action organization as defined in par. (c) of this section) which (1) is substantially directed, dominated, or controlled by a communist-action organization, and (2) is primarily operated for the purpose of giving aid and support to a communist-action organization, a communist foreign government, or the world communist movement referred to in sec. 1 of this article."

Seci 2 para. (c) and (d) seem to be quite clear and definite as to the type and purpose of the organization prop. 24 intends to make illegal.

The opponent of this prop. cry that "sec. 3 would confer on the grand jury the power to wreck reputations and destroy careers." Who are we going to pass laws to protect — "americans" so pink that they get caught in the web of anti-red legislation or Americans whose loyalty to America has made us a nation second to none?

Do you have any fear that your reputation or career will be wrecked because you belong to any organizations fitting the definitions of "communist-action organizationss" or "communist-front organizations" as appear in prop. 24? This columnist certainly has no such anxiety, but he does know that there are individuals in our State who do fear prop. 24. Their fears are well grounded because when Proposition 24 becomes law, they no longer will hold office or receive property tax exemption. If they are teachers or employees of public education institutions they will be required to answer congressional and legislative committee inquiries concerning communist affiliation and subversion. Their political conspiracy will be unmasked for what it is and when they have been proven to be a member of the Communist conspiracy, they will have violated a State law.

Frightening, isn't it? — if you are a communist.

The opposition tells us: "There are plenty of anti-communist laws in California. Experts who have analyzed the Francis Amendment (prop. 24) say that most of its provisions already stand in the statues." This is an out and out lie!

During the 1961 general sesison of the liberal controlled state legislature, not one single anti-communist law, let alone a bill that would outlaw communists, was passed. Althogether, a total of eighteen Anti-Red measures were sponsored during the session. However, most of these bills failed to even be passed out of the committees to which they were referred.

Assemblyman Louis Francis, author of prop. 24 stated: "One wonders what these critics really think now since the release of the report of the Senate Fact Finding Subcommittee on Un-American Activities in the state. This report not only vindicates our attempt to pass such legislation but emphasizes that a resurgence of communist activities in California the last 18 months has resulted in alarming indoctrination of college students and recruitment of youth because of the apathy of the American people and the renewed revitalization and vigor of the communist party in California since 1959."

For "Liberty": A yes on 24.

Salt Creek?

Governor Barnett of the Hub of Dixie has handed the Kennedy Clan a nightmare in a clanging armor — and frankly, Gov. "Ross" has them worried. Rumors have it that Jack, Bobby and Ted haven't found their paddle they lost up Salt Creek where they've been talking over this problem. Bobby even sent word that if Gov. Barnett didn't resolve this thing pretty soon why Jack would call a strategy meeting of the whole Kennedy Clan . . . Seems that right is on the side of the Kennedys but their Irish tempers sure don't work like mine.

Lesson-Sermon Sunday, Oct. 28

An assuring message about immortality will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday in a Lesson-Sermon on the subject "Probation After Death."

Opening the Responsive Reading will be these verses from the Bible (John 14): "Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you. And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself; that where I am, there ye may be adso."

One of the citations from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy states (p. 487): "The understanding that Life is God, Spirit, lengthens our days by strengthening our trust in the deathless reality of Life, its almightiness and immortality."

It may take "Two To Tango," but it only takes one to tangle — the modern car.

Faith Lutheran Announce Sunday Services

The Protestant Festival of the Reformation will be observed in the 8 and 10:30 Sunday morning worship services at Faith Lutheran Church, 845 Hastings Ranch Drive.

As his sermon theme for the two services, the Rev. Armin Hesse has chosen "Still a Protestant," selecting as his sermon scripture Galatians 2:11-16.

At 9:15, the Sunday school departments will continue the study of the Old Testament lesson series by considering the Scriptural account of "The Giving of the Law."

The Church Council will meet next Monday evening at 7:30, to prepare the business agenda for the annual election and budget meeting to be held at 2 o'clock on Sunday afternoon, Nov. 4.

Hills Church To Celebrate 5th Anniversary

Fifth anniversary of the first service of Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church will be celebrated at Reformation Sunday Worship at 10:10 a.m. Oct. 28. The congregation, now building at 7 W. Foothill Blvd. in Arcadia, meets at 33 E. Sierra Madre Blvd. in Sierra Madre.

The first worship was held on Reformation Sunday, 1957, in the Upper Room of the Sierra Madre Woman's Club. In 1958 the congregation found larger quarters in the Sierra Madre Masonic Temple, after organizing as a congregation on May 11, 1958.

Several new members will be received in the Anniversary Class. An informal reception will follow at the parsonage later in the day. At morning worship, the Rev. Ray E. Hansen will speak on "True As An Arrow." The sermon is based on the great Christian freedom passage in John 8:31-36.

"Martin Luther reminds us that a person has to do his own believing," Pastor Hansen will point out. "You can ask other people to do many things for wou — except one:: you cannot get another to have faith for you. We all are freed by Christ so we can do our own believing. In this we must be as true as an arrow, or we shall miss the mark of salvation."

The sermon develops the how of winning true faith.

The Chancel Choir directed by Charles E. Markham will offer special music, with Norman Lunt at the organ.

Sunday School classes are at 9 a.m.

Visitors are welcome.

Hills Model Church Now On Display

The "model in motion" of the new Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran church being built in Arcadia is now on display at the Alpha Beta Food Market, 20 W. Foothill Blvd., by courtesy of manager Dick Stone. The model is the creation of Mrs. Robert M. Kelley of Sierra Madre, wife of the building committee chairman.

Meanwhile, construction is underway at the site across the boulevard at the northwest corner of the intersection of N. Santa Anita Ave. and W. Foothill Blvd. by Frank Legg, Pasadena, general contractor, following the groundbreaking service Sunday, Oct. 21.

The congregation is constructing the first building of a multiphase construction program to the west of the Richfield Service station it owns on the corner. The new edifice includes a chapel, classrooms, social hall, kitchen, restrooms, nursery and church office. Completion is estimated in six month, with the possibility of entering the building at Eastertime.

The mission, begun five years ago by the Rev. Ray E. Hansen, now serving as pastor, has more than 300 baptized members and has shown steady growth. At present the congregation meets in the Sierra Madre Masonic Temple.

The ultimate use of the three-acre site and the building design and plans are by Robert R. Inslee, prominent Lutheran church architect.

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Have the by-laws been changed that forbid the California Congress of Parents and Teachers to participate in politics? How can the CCPTA announce it opposes the Francis Amendment, Proposition 24, against subversion due to be on the November ballot?

I suggest that those who are still charmed by PTA pronouncements get a copy of the Communist People's World for Sept. 29, 1962. You will read a fascinating article commending the PTA for its opposition to Prop. 24. My, doesn't that make us proud to be PTA members!

Dr. Schaper Announces Sunday Sermon

Dr. Robert N. Schaper, pastor at Bethany Church of Sierra Madre announces that his subject for the worship hour at 11 a.m. on Reformation Sunday, Oct. 28 is "The Evangelical Way." Bethany is cooperating with this request and will receive an offering during the morning service for the work of the NAE whose Southwestern Regional Office is located in Whittier.

On Sunday evening, Dr. Schaper will be preaching during the Evangelistic Hour. The Chapel Choir, made up of high school and college young people will sing a hymn entitled, "Jacob's Vision." This outstanding choir, numbering about 30 young people is directed by Mr. Doug Coe, music instructor at La Canada Junior High School. This musical group and three others throughout the church make an outstanding contribution to the worship services at the church.

Question: Why do so many residents of East Germany, Hungary, Poland, Cuba or any other area to which the blessings of Communism have come daily risk their lives in efforts to escape from them?

"Mother Was a Rebel" in October Readers Digest tells the story of a young widow with a lovely but untrained voice and no stage experience who had to support two small children and sought a trial for a part in "Mr. Pickwick," a musical comedy starring Dewolf Hopper and Louise Gunning. The famous comedian ordinarily refused to consider any actor who had not been proved good under fire but generous Miss Gunning prevailed on him to audition the young widow. That was the same Louise Gunning who, years later, came to Sierra Madre to recuperate after a breakdown, later married violinist Oskar Seiling and reigned as the hostess with the mostest over scores of memorable gatherings of musical and artistic persons at the Seiling estate at the top of Adams St. Usually the entertainment featured Oskar's more talented pupils, several of whom we heard later on national hookup radio programs, but once in a while we could get Louise to sing, and we still remember those times. The Digest story condenses a new book, "As the Night the Day," and all of us who remember Louise Gunning Seiling as a blithe spirit will be glad her generosity and kindness will be thus recorded.

Joins Staff of Arts Group

Lee J. Wexler, well-known Sierra Madre artist, will join the staff of the Creative Arts Group at 37 E. Montecito St., teaching painting and drawing, with special emphaisis on design. Beginning Friday morning, Oct. 26, the class will meet once a week for 12 weeks from 9:30 to 12. In addition to basic drawing and design, the class will experiment in water-based paints and various uses of egg tempera.

Mr. Wexler has exhibited in the Metropolitan Art Museum in New York and at the Los Angeles County Art Museum. He presently is preparing his own showing in his Sierra Madre studio.

Artists, either beginning or experienced, who would like further information on the new class may phone 356-1450 week days between 10 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Hermit of The Sierra Madre

with Den Murray

'Can you tell me," I asked the Hermit, "why an owner of an old house from wence kids and grandkids have long flown has to pay for the schooling of kids being reared in swank rented mansions?" "I can tell you," he nodded, "but it is obvious you are coming down with a bad case of Birchism. The system that taxes real estate to pay the cost of free education for all was set up back when 95 percent of parents owned their own homes." "But how about now? Why doesn't some brave, aspiring candidate come out and advocate a head tax for the schooling of each renter's child equal to say the cost of individual garbage collection?" "Such bravery among political contenders hasn't been displayed since the Spartans faced the Persians in the pass at Thermopylae. Would you have a candidate immolate himself on the wrath of every rent-paying parent within reach of a polling booth?"

"Alright, skip that. But how about this: a candidate coming right out and announcing that if he is elected — all so-called juvenile delinquents employing violence in crimes against person and/or property will be treated as young criminals? Their names, names and addresses of their parents, will be published. They will be jailed under conditions such as to render jail a highly unpopular teenage hangout."

The Hermit, visibly shocked, demanded, "What are you trying to do — restore parental discipline in the home? Make our parks safe to visit? Make it safe for a woman to walk abroad with her pocketbook showing? Make it safe to leave our school buildings unpatrolled at night? Safe to park our cars on the street? You must be crazy! Next thing you'll be suggesting that our kids be taught to read and write and spell, and the difference between American freedom and Communist slavery.

Just you start beating the drums for any nonsense like that and boom! Jimmy Roosevelt — the Committee to Abolish the House Un-American Activities Committee — and the 'Liberal' wing of the Democratic party start chewing you up like a seething school of famished piranhas. Get out of the way, son. This country is finally on the move."

First Youth Concert Nov. 4

Sierra Madre PTA Music Chairmen report that sales of Ticket Booklets for the forthcoming Youth Concert series have been successful in our local schools. Mrs. Robert Mitchell, PTA Music Chairman for Eugene Field, and Mrs. Ronald Toms at Don Benito are pleased that Sierra Madre-Hastings area students have such a keen interest in this concert program.

The Pasadena Area Youth Music Council is sponsoring the four concerts which will be held on Sunday afternoons at 2 and 3:30 in Pasadena Civic Auditorium. Additional booklets may be obtained at the Civic box office from 10-12 noon, today and tomorrow; also two days prior to the first concert, which will be Nov. 4.

The three remaining concerts will be: The Christmas opera, "A Gift of Song," on Dec. 3; the Compinsky Ensemble on March 3, and the Pasadena Symphony Orchestra on March 31.

The modern high-speed car is a dangerous weapon.

Sierra Madre School Wins First of Three

Sierra Madre's football team came from behind in the third quarter to upset the Don Benito eleven by a score of 8 to 6, Saturday afternoon in a thrilling game at the Wilson Junior High.

Rocky Marshall ran 27 yards for a touchdown and seconds later carried the ball across for the extra two points.

Don Benito led 6 to 0 when Quarterback Steve Nealy threw a long pass to Marshall to start them on their winning drive.

Don Benito made a final effort when Sierra Madre kicked off, returning the ball to the 15-yard line where they were held by Sierra Madre. Steve Nealy in the next play intercepted a pass to put out the fine, and this was their final threat. The game ended 8-6 in Sierra Madre's favor.

Use a little common sense — the man who won't listen to reason soon becomes a crank.
